

ramifications to me as just an old farm boy, I want to make sure it's not affecting inadvertently some of our farmers out there that are trying to do a good job. I realize the intent of the bill and I just want...as I look into the bill further, I want to make sure that it is confined only to the large labor contracts and the migrant workers. Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: No other lights on. Senator Smith, you have less than 30 seconds.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you. I would just ask for the vote.

SPEAKER BARRETT: You have heard the motion to advance the bill. Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Voting to advance the bill. Please record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance 344.

SPEAKER BARRETT: LB 344 is advanced. Inasmuch as the bill did advance, I want to introduce some guests of Senator Schmit, Don and Maxine Hall of Campbell, Nebraska, under the north balcony. Don and Maxine, would you stand and be recognized. Also, some special guests of Senator Schmit, the Nebraska Wheat Hearts are under the north balcony. They are Donna Sullivan of Wallace, Sally Banks of Superior, Maxine Balderson of Benkelman, Lorraine Haas of Hemingford, Jane Rowner of Sidney and Nadine Fry of McCook. Please stand and be recognized. We appreciate your visiting with us. We certainly appreciate the cinnamon rolls which have been passed out. Under the south balcony, guests of Senator Moore, Sara Kleopfer and Amy Kohtz, high school students from York, Nebraska. Please stand and be recognized. Under the south balcony. Also, guests of Senator Beyer, 21 one to seven graders from Elk City District B school and teachers in the north balcony. Please stand and be recognized. Thank you for visiting with us. We hope you can all come back again another time. The next bill, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, if I might before that, Senator Schmit would move to raise 232, notwithstanding the action of the Education Committee. That will be laid over.

New A bill, 647A by Senators Nelson and Wesely. (Read by title for the first time. See page 1054 of the Legislative Journal.)

Bills read on Final Reading have been presented to the Governor.